

OSR

Organization Systems Renewal at Seattle University
Graduate programs in the design and leadership of systemic organizational change

OSR Alumni Association presents the Third Annual Conference

How is change changing?

Explore new patterns of practice with Peggy Holman, co-author of The Change Handbook

Saturday, June 28
Student Center – Seattle University
osr-nw.org/conference/

Featuring 8 workshops by Seattle's leading agents of change

Explore the need for changing the way we change.

“I believe that we are on the leading edge of a shift in how humans organize themselves to accomplish meaningful purpose. Having tasted such mindful, heartfelt, soulful ways of working and living together, how can we operate this way all the time?” writes Peggy Holman in her recently published 2nd edition of The Change Handbook.

Peggy Holman guides your journey alongside improvisation artists Randy Dixon and Michael Bills, and graphic facilitator Steven Wright. Plus presenters of eight workshops examining emerging practices, sampling self-awareness tools and probing fascinating case studies. Reserve your place today. Go to <http://osr-nw.org/conference/>

Saturday, June 28 at Seattle University Student Center

Workshops include:

Finding the magic: When groups achieve extraordinary results with Kathleen Ryan

The way we travel will change the world with Glenda Chaffin, Will Hewett, Elaine Jessen, Bob Woodruff

Radical change at the “speed of trust” with Mary Allison, Dan Oestreich, Sandra Sault Poulson

The end of leadership and consultancy as we know it with Joelle Lyons Everett, Keith McCandless

Achieve higher performance through communities of practice with Clayton Gridley, David Kleweno, Iris Lemmer

Leading change with head and heart with Lismary de Lemos, Brit Poulson

Crucial conversations with a cross-cultural twist with Richard Wilkinson

Changing boundaries: How can we support youth participation in change? with Greg Williamson